News from the Maraga Campaign

August 2026

Vol 4

What has the David Maraga Campaign been up to lately? This issue is a round up of the major stories that have defined our journey so far.

State of the Nation: The Way Forward

On 16 June, Hon. Maraga outlined his blueprint for the liberation of the country in a 'state of the nation' address at Ufungamano House, Nairobi. His address was also the climax of the countrywide Ukatiba caravan tour in which he engaged citizens on their aspirations and frustrations with governance. Maraga, laid out a three-point national recovery agenda built on constitutionalism, restoration of human dignity, and economic renewal The event drew participants from the civil society and the Opposition.

Joint Opposition Talks on the Table

Opposition unity has been the big question as we gear towards 2027. This June, Hon. Maraga made one of his clearest statements yet on working with others “I believe in opposition unity. But opposition unity must be built on a convergence of values and not appetites.”

Ukatiba Caravan Heads to the US

Hon. Maraga will tour the United States to engage directly with Kenyans in Diaspora starting September 17. The itinerary includes meetings in Delaware, Texas, New York, Minnesota, New Jersey, DC, among others. Find out more

GenZ to Determine 2027

In the 2022 election, just 233,000 votes separated the winner from the runner-up in the presidential race. But 2027 promises to be a totally different ball with the advent of the GenZ. Will they herald change with #NikoKadi Movement? Hon. Maraga lauded their awakening and urged Gen Z to continue to register as voters→
